The Business Way!

The business way to advertise is to take advantage of the year, take pains with your advertisements in making them attractive, and change them at least as often as once a month.

You may think there are seasons when you don't need to advertise.

We have never seen that time.

Use the dull seasons for looking over your stock and running off that which is becoming out of style or unfashionable, and giving bargains.

If you have space by the year, it costs you no more, and you can make it profitable by converting unsaleable goods into money, and reinvesting the money in those things which are salable.

Where is That Bonney New? Greenberg (Ind.) Review.—During the last campaign of the Democrats in this city displayed a banner in their processions bearing this inscription:

VOTE FOR GROVER CLEVELAND AND GIVE HIM
$2 A BUSHEL
FOR YOUR WHEAT.

A liberal reward will be paid for that banner at this office, and no questions asked.

The deadly blow given to the Torrey Bankruptcy bill last week by a number of Southern Congressmen was the sick man's rite; it is a tacit no to the surgeon's knife. Local collections have been the business curse of the South for many years, and have hampered its commercial and industrial development. More prompt settlements of commercial debts would be a greater boon to the South than to any other part of the land. It is a shortsighted policy to let a few men block the welfare of the whole country because some people who can't pay their debts object to the involuntary bankruptcy provision. It is no disgrace to be forced into bankruptcy; the ablest and the best men in the business world may be caught and set, in such times as these, by the drift of complicated and financial conditions. But there would be fewer bankruptcies, in the South and every where else, if all cases of insolvency were settled promptly and without the unjust provision of "preferred creditors."

DEMOCRACY is engaged in a congenial task when it is devising tax bills. Senator Hill is now out with a proposition to tax inheritances to help cover the expected Free-trade deficit in the Federal revenues.

A BIG FIRE

Costs Buffalo, N. Y., a Million and a Half Dollars.

A Theater, Concert Hall and Several Business Houses Burned.

A Natural Gas Explosion Under the Boiler Causes All the Mishief—An Englishman Supposed to Have Perished—In-surance Will Not Cover Losses.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Dec. 15.—The block at the corner of Clinton and Main streets and extending back to Washington Avenue, as the Arcade, was destroyed by fire Thursday night. The Alameda and Robinson's Musee, theater and Sheen's concert hall, the latter the finest between New York and Chicago, are in ruins. The firemen of the building is missing, and it is supposed, perished in the flames.

At seven o'clock people in the vicinity heard a muffled explosion. The scrub woman in charge of the morning work about the building had just arrived and had been engaged in work when she saw smoke. At that time many matines and evening crowds have laughed time away since the old structure was rebuilt for museum purposes several years ago.

When the explosion came this woman ran through the curtains crying "Fire!" and the alarm was given to those who occupied apartments in the building. All the inmates escaped, though the flames spread with lightning rapidity.

The first outward manifestation of fire was seen in the northeast corner of the building, on the third floor, at the Washington-street side. Smoke came first in circles, and then in volumes, and then these volumes, dense and black, were shot with streaking tongues of flame.

Next the devouring element showed its presence in the Main street front, well down toward the party wall which divided it from Faxon, Williams & Faxon's grocery building, known as "Yerxa," a handsome six-story structure.

Having a good start on the two fronts, the fire began to work toward a central point, and in a very short time the entire big building was enveloped in flames.

It was evident from the first that it was hopeless to think of saving the Arcade building, and special attention was directed to checking the progress of the fire toward Eagle street.

The flames had penetrated the building, and the firemen, who were on the main aisle grocers, and the late J. N. Adams' big drygoods store was only held in question by the heavy fire wall on the north or fire side.

At this point the water tower was broken, and the firemen, who were at this critical juncture materially contributed to save the remainder of the block. Almost innumerable streams from the west, north and east sides of the Arcade building were keeping the flames well in check, and some bold experts said that the blaze had done its worst in licking up two blocks—the immense arcade and the Yerxa block.

In the building among those who will suffer most by the fire are: Shea & Eberhardt, M. S. Rotundis, Buffalo and Sons, clothing; L. C. H. and C. E. and Optical; Thebaud & Co., dyers; Harvey & Co., spirit merchants; Feithouson & Co., plumbers; J. Neuman, photographer; S. Levy, clothers; Misfit Clothing Co.; Otto Ulrich, stationer; W. Williams, drygoods; G. F. Gars, Republican county committee; the Five-Cent Store Co., a number of occupiers of offices and tenants of the living apartments.

The fire was caused by an explosion of natural gas under the boilers, which were nearly in the center of the Arcade building.

The firemen of the building was in the boiler-room when the explosion occurred, and there does not seem to be the slightest chance of his having escaped, as he has not been seen since the fire started.

M. D. Shea, proprietor of the concert hall, estimates the loss at $80,000, with only $10,000 insurance. Mr. Robinson, proprietor of the Musee Theater, thought his loss would not be far from $100,000.

Faxon, Williams & Faxon's store is a total loss, together with the contents. The building was valued at $300,000. The firm did a general grocery business, and a very large stock of groceries, liquors, cigars, etc.

They were insured for $100,000, and the loss on their goods will exceed that amount. Total loss in all, $1,500,000.

Canadian Murderer Hanged.

BROOKLYN, Dec. 15.—At 8:30 yesterday morning Charles Lyman, Jr., was hanged for the murder of his father, sister and stepmother. He went to the gallows with a smiling face. He walked to his death as unconcernedly as most men would walk to their dinner table. Up to the last he protested his innocence, and to outward appearance died perfectly happy. Luckey's neck was broken and he died instantly.

President Lyman Resigns.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Civil Service Commissioner Charles Lyman, of Connecticut, has resigned as president of the commission. This action was taken at the regular meeting held Wednesday afternoon and was announced Thursday forenoon. Mr. Lyman sometimes as a member of the commission.

An Indian Loan.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—In the house of commons Thursday, by a vote of 145 to 60, the second reading of the bill authorizing a loan of $10,000,000 to India, owing to the failure of the government to sell bonds, was passed.

Pennsylvania Murder Executed.

SMETHPORT, Pa., Dec. 15.—Ralph Crossmore was hanged here Thursday morning for the murder of his mother, Mrs. Lucretia Crossmore, about a year ago.

GRAIN SPECULATION

Will Be Encouraged by the New Anti-option Bill.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Chairman of the Senate committee introduced in the house his new anti-option bill. The principal change between the new and the old bill is in the exemption, in the new bill, of dealers in grain, flour, meal, feed, grain, all taxes and the reduction of six in dealing from $1,000 to $500, and the tax upon the sales about one-half.

The old bill provided a tax of twenty-five cents per bushel on wheat and corn and five cents per pound on the other articles.

The old bill was intended to prohibit illegal trading altogether by putting the tax so high that no one could afford to pay it. The new bill will put a reasonable revenue on the market, and the sale of the Alamada from San Francisco.

Secretary Gresham was equally reticent on the subject Thursday when questioned about the message, and said he had no information in that connection.

The message had been prepared, and the correspondence was at the white house, ready for transmission with it. At Tuesday's cabinet meeting it was discussed, and it was decided that it go to the president as soon as possible, as originally prepared, there having been no change in Hawaii of importance which would in any way affect the tenor of the president's statement.

The president will attempt to show that the queen was overthrown by acts sanctioned by Minister Stevens; that, as they received the approval of the United States, and are considered by the present administration unjustified and unwise.

The president will instruct to first decline formally the proposition of annexation, and then announce that the United States demanded that the queen restore to power peacefully. That if she did not do this, the president will assure the assurance of this government that she would be protected from harm, then to take no steps, but await instructions from the United States.

The president will say that the legitimate and provisional government must strengthen itself, stand. All conditions are such as to prevent the adjournment of the legislature.

The president, having exhausted the prerogatives of his office to bring about a settlement with the queen without calling up the naval forces to assist it, there is no other resort for the president but to leave the question to the further action of congress.

MARCHING ON RIO JANIERO.

An Invasion Army of 5,000 Likely to March on Brazil Saturday.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—On December 8, when the steamer Nile sailed from Pernambuco, Gen. Gomes da Saravia, the insurgent general, was reported to be marching northward from Rio Janeiro with 5,000 men, whom he had gathered from the cattle ranches. His objective point is Rio de Janeiro. He was expected to arrive in the neighborhood about the middle of the month. Along the coast most persons thought that an engagement would take place by December 15.

United States ships said that Rio de Janeiro, Dec. 15.—In Thomas L. Thompson, United States minister to Brazil, announces that whatever other nations may do, the United States will protect the commerce of the country and the safety of the foreign naval vessels. The action of other nations in withdrawing the protection formerly accorded to merchantmen by their naval vessels at this point is construed as an attempt covertly to aid the insurgents in their efforts to restore the monarchy.

United States ships said that Rio de Janeiro, Dec. 15.—D. H. Moffat and Eben Smith have sold the Victor mine, one of the best in Crispie Creek, to an English syndicate.

Davison, Col., Dec. 15.—D. H. Moffat and Eben Smith have sold the Victor mine, one of the best in Crispie Creek, to an English syndicate.

SAVANNAH, Dec. 15.—The Briggs Manufacturing Co. has been formed in this city to manufacture the Briggs paper press feeder. The new company is capitalized at $1,000,000, and has for directors Samuel J. Moore, James A. Davis, T. T. Townsend, and J. H. Bailes. The millionaire car manufacturer of Dayton, O.; C. A. Holloman, a banker of Dayton, and Thos. A. Briggs of Boston.

Food for Eating Peanuts.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 15.—Morris Whittington and James Brown, two colored young men, who are members of the First African Methodist Episcopal Church, Thursday for eating peanuts in the church.

The justice in rendering his decision stated that the cracking noise made in opening the nuts disturbed religious worship. The offending worshippers had been asked to postpone the feast, but said they were hungry, and contended that they had done nothing worse than in licking up two blocks—the worst in licking up two blocks—the immense arcade and the Yerxa block.

The flames had penetrated the building, and the firemen, who were on the main aisle grocers, and the late J. N. Adams' big drygoods store was only held in question by the heavy fire wall on the north or fire side.

THE MESSAGE

On the Hawaiian Matter Ready For Transmission.

The President Will Endeavor to Show That Queen Lilu Was Overthrown

By Acts Sanctioned by Minister Stevens; That It Received the Approval of the United States—Cleveland Think It Wrong, and It Should Be Undone.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The principal change between the new and the old bill is in the exemption, in the new bill, of dealers in grain, flour, meal, feed, grain, all taxes and the reduction of six in dealing from $1,000 to $500, and the tax upon the sales about one-half.

The old bill provided a tax of twenty-five cents per bushel on wheat and corn and five cents per pound on the other articles.

The old bill was intended to prohibit illegal trading altogether by putting the tax so high that no one could afford to pay it. The new bill will put a reasonable revenue on the market, and the sale of the Alamada from San Francisco.

Secretary Gresham was equally reticent on the subject Thursday when questioned about the message, and said he had no information in that connection.

The message had been prepared, and the correspondence was at the white house, ready for transmission with it. At Tuesday's cabinet meeting it was discussed, and it was decided that it go to the president as soon as possible, as originally prepared, there having been no change in Hawaii of importance which would in any way affect the tenor of the president's statement.

The president will attempt to show that the queen was overthrown by acts sanctioned by Minister Stevens; that, as they received the approval of the United States, and are considered by the present administration unjustified and unwise.

The president will instruct to first decline formally the proposition of annexation, and then announce that the United States demanded that the queen restore to power peacefully. That if she did not do this, the president will assure the assurance of this government that she would be protected from harm, then to take no steps, but await instructions from the United States.

The president will say that the legitimate and provisional government must strengthen itself, stand.

All conditions are such as to prevent the adjournment of the legislature.

The president, having exhausted the prerogatives of his office to bring about a settlement with the queen without calling up the naval forces to assist it, there is no other resort for the president but to leave the question to the further action of congress.

To Coin Seigniorage.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Senator Voorhees has introduced a bill for the coinage of seigniorage on the treasury stock of silver at the rate of $2,000,000 a month. After this seigniorage fund is accumulated monthly silver purchases are to be suspended until the sum reaches $10,000 a month. Provision is made for the appointment of commissioners to another international monetary conference. The bill was referred to the finance committee.

Holloman, a banker of Dayton, and Thos. A. Briggs of Boston.

Ex-Gov. Foster Wants Aid.

BOSTON, Dec. 15.—Morris Whittington and James Brown, two colored young men, who are members of the First African Methodist Episcopal Church, Thursday for eating peanuts in the church.

The justice in rendering his decision stated that the cracking noise made in opening the nuts disturbed religious worship.

The offending worshippers had been asked to postpone the feast, but said they were hungry, and contended that they had done nothing worse than in licking up two blocks—the worst in licking up two blocks—the immense arcade and the Yerxa block.

The flames had penetrated the building, and the firemen, who were on the main aisle grocers, and the late J. N. Adams' big drygoods store was only held in question by the heavy fire wall on the north or fire side.

At this point the water tower was broken, and the firemen, who were at this critical juncture materially contributed to save the remainder of the block. Almost innumerable streams from the west, north and east sides of the Arcade building were keeping the flames well in check, and some bold experts said that the blaze had done its worst in licking up two blocks—the immense arcade and the Yerxa block.

The firemen of the building was in the boiler-room when the explosion occurred, and there does not seem to be the slightest chance of his having escaped, as he has not been seen since the fire started.

M. D. Shea, proprietor of the concert hall, estimates the loss at $80,000, with only $10,000 insurance. Mr. Robinson, proprietor of the Musee Theater, thought his loss would not be far from $100,000.
